Dear UC Recruit Analysts,

This is an FYI that the following two applicant status names in UC Recruit have been updated. Both are short listed statuses.

- "Invite for interview" has been renamed to "Recommend for interview" to better reflect that the applicant is being put forward for an interview but has yet to be invited.
- "Selected candidate" has been renamed to "Proposed candidate" to reflect that this candidate still needs to be approved before they receive an offer.

If the old statuses had already been assigned to an applicant, the applicant's log will document that the system has renamed them accordingly.
